Dear Mr. Dent,

The Atlanta Computer Society, Inc. will be hosting a COCOFEST at the Northlake Holiday Inn, in Atlanta, on September 30th and October 1st 1995. Many vendors have already committed to be there and we are expecting many more to join us soon. As a vendor yourself, you know how publicity from an event like this can help promote your products!

Among the attractions at the COCOFEST will be several GRAND PRIZES which will be given away at the final drawing on Sunday afternoon. This drawing will be from a drum containing only admission tickets.

In addition to the above we will also give away hourly prizes from a separate drum containing tickets that have been purchased inside the COCOFEST area. These tickets will be kept entirely separate from the grand prize tickets. The sale of hourly drawing tickets will be for the benefit of the Atlanta Computer Society, Inc., a non-profit educational corporation in the State of Georgia, and any monies collected will be used to promote future COCOFESTS in Atlanta.

To that end, and hopefully to satisfy both of our needs, we are asking you to contribute a gift or gifts to be used as hourly prizes. If you would like to donate a MAJOR PRIZE for the GRAND PRIZE drawing, please mark the MAJOR PRIZE block on the accompanying donation form. All prize donors will receive official recognition from the Atlanta Computer Society, Inc. in the form of a letter of receipt that will bear the seal of incorporation of our club. We will announce all winners, donors and prizes won on the P.A. system in the vendors area.

Please send all donations AND donation forms to:

Atlanta Computer Society, Inc.
Alan R. Dages, Prize Committee Chairman
4894 Candlewood Lane
Stone Mountain, Ga. 30088-1606

Donations should be delivered to that address before September 22nd. in order that all prizes/vendor can be properly recognized at the COCOFEST.

Thank you in advance for your support of the Atlanta COCOFEST and our efforts to promote this activity.

The Atlanta Computer Society, Inc., sponsors of the 6th Annual Atlanta CoCoFest, in order to better serve all interested parties, requests the following information from all vendors who will attend.

Name of your organization or company

A complete mailing address

A telephone number

If applicable a FAX number

Account names on any and all electronic communication carriers

The number of people who will man your booth

The names of these people

Any products you produce and sell

Any products which you sell for someone else

Any products which you are licensed to sell, which are not your product
(please define these as best you can)

Our intention is to include this information in our Fest Guide, something we have overlooked in the past. We would appreciate if you would limit this information to about 10 lines of 35 characters each so that it will fit in a folded page booklet.

Please mail this information along with you request for booth space!

Subject: Donations for Atlanta CoCoFEST! 1991

On behalf of the Atlanta Computer Society, I would like to thank you for the donation for our CoCoFEST! raffle. Thanks to your help, we were able to add to the enjoyment of CoCoFEST! attendees, as well as raise funds to help the ACS to better serve the CoCo Community. I hope that you will be able to attend next year's Atlanta CoCoFEST! and have a profitable year. It is companies like Sub-Etha Software that keeps this dynamic computing community alive.

Sincerely,
