COCOFEST V

WELCOME to ATLANTA'S CoCoFEST V!

Hello everyone! My name is Ken Fish and I'm the president of the Atlanta Computer Society. I would like to thank you on behalf of the whole ACS. What are we thanking you for? This Fest is a success because of you the vendors. You keep producing the great products which keep the users interested. And we thank you the people who come to the Fest and show the vendors we want new products and are willing to buy to keep them going.

We have more vendors this year than before.

We have expectations of more attendees than before. How could I not feel great about the Fest? The ACS organizes these Fests because we want to support those people who keep the interest going.

Will there be more Fests? Time will tell. But, I can tell you this. As long as there are people who will support the vendors and come to shows like this, and vendors to give us products, there WILL be Fests!

Enjoy! This is for You. If you doesn't make you feel a little foolish doing it, take a bow. After all, you deserve it.

Vendor Profiles

- 13) ALAN R. DAGES 4894 Candlewood Ln., Stone Mountain, GA, 30088 (404)469-5111 Al Dages is the current secretary of the ACS and will be dividing his time between his booth and the ACS sales next to his booth. He will be featuring "new and gently used" at his booth, as well as trying to say "hello" to all. Stop by his booth to look at his quality merchandise (and keep him from having to chase you all over to say hello).
- 14) ATLANTA COMPUTER SOCIETY PO. Box 80694 Atlanta, GA 30366 (404) 636-2991 (BBS) Stop in and say Hi to the folks who are bringing you this CoCoFest and check out the GREAT specials we have for signing as a new member. Also the authorized vendor for Sub-Etha's fantastic CoCoFest simulation game. Our thanks to Allen Huffman for revising this fun game and donating it to the ACS.
- 15) WITTMAN COMPUTER PRODUCTS 873 Johnson Rd., Churchville, NY 14428 (716) 494-1506 The only thing we have for this company lists Bill Wittman Jr. as "hardware, software and consulting", so stop by his booth to see what he's up to these days. It'll be worth it!
- 16) EUGENE ADAMS 135 Lloyd Drive, Marietta, GA 30066 (404) 422-3097 Gene states "I'm not a vendor, just a philanthropic member!" Gene will again be giving away some of the older CoCos that he has saved from various places and various fates, as well as some new software he has collected.
- 17) MID IOWA & COUNTRY COCO 1328 48th St., Des Moines, IA 50311 (515) 279-2576 This club has an extensive library of "orphan"ware and other items. Check out a membership to this club if there are older programs that you want but can't find anywhere else, or if you want another way to express your support of the CoCo.
- 18) RICK'S COMPUTER ENTERPRISE PO.Box 276, Liberty, KY 42539 (606) 787-5783 This is THE place to be if you are into DEC! Rick puts out one fantastic magazine on disk as well as representing SUNDG SYSTEMS. The Computer Friends Disk Magazine is well worth checking into even if you normally use OS-9. Who says you can't teach an old dog new tricks? Rick and CFDM sure try hard!
- 19) JOTA PRODUCTIONS PO. Box 4657, Nacogdoches, TX 75962 (409) 560-1876 This newly formed company will be featuring new software for the MM/1 and the Delmar System IV that will excite even the most skeptical. "Grab a handful of energy and get excited!"
- 20) KLYSTRONICS (No address available at this writing) This new vendor made its first appearance at the Chicago CoCoFest, and will feature new and gently used Klystrones. Stop by and get a Klystrone of your own.
- 21) STRONGWARE PO. Box 361, Matthews, IN 46957 (317) 998-7558 Strongware features quality software for the Color Computer and the MM/1. Stop by the booth and see their latest projects!

Seminar Schedule

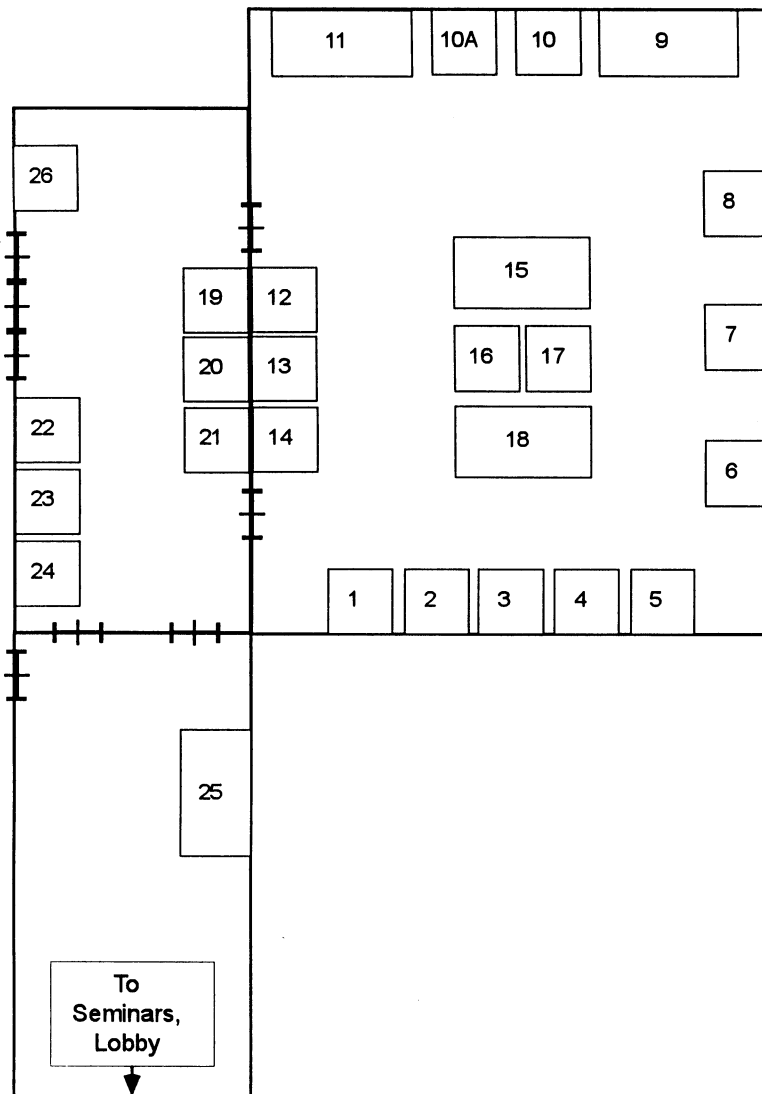

Saturday

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 12:00 to 12:55 | "The Future of OS-9" by Ed Gresick
Ed Gresick has been involved with computers since the first UNIVAC in 1950. More recently, he has worked with OS-9 since day one, and introduced his SYSTEM IV at the 1990 Atlanta CoCoFest. |
| 1:00 to 1:55 | "Supporting the CoCo : The Next Step" by Allen Huffman
Allen has been a loyal CoCoist since about 1982 and in 1990 he co-founded Sub-Etha Software with Terry Todd. Allen is also the Color Computer SysOp in the Tandy Round Table on GENie. |
| 2:00 to 2:55 | "CoCo Hard Drives" by Frank Swygert
Frank started working with the CoCo in Japan in 1983. There was no support in Japan, but Frank has stuck with it to where he can support others. Setting up a hard drive is tricky, but he's there to help. |
| 3:00 to 3:55 | "Open OS-9 Forum" by Kevin Darling
Kevin has been in OS-9 for a long time, and after missing last years fest, we are pleased to have him moderate this open forum. |

Sunday

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 10:00 to 10:55 | "The Future of Desktop OS-9" by David Graham
David Graham is selling the MM/1 system and also gives help with MM/1 modifications and upgrades. He owns the rights to the MM/1 and does have an interest in the uses of OS-9 and OSK. |
| 11:00 to 11:55 | "Graphics and Game Programming Forum" by John Strong
John is a long time programmer, who actually started programming before he owned a computer! His first CoCo was an old gray case CoCo I. He is involved with programming in RS-DOS, OS-9, and OSK, and has had commercial success with programs like "Soviet Block" and "HPRINT Font Editor". |
| 12:00 to 12:55 | "Inside CD-I" by Boisy Pitre
Boisy G. Pitre, 23, is a software engineer at Microware Systems Corporation in Des Moines, IA and has been an avid OS-9 user, programmer and advocate for over six years with specific interests in system modules, applications, compilers and utilities. He holds memberships in ACM, EFFO and the OS-9 Users Group. |
