Dear Boss Person,

The Atlanta Computer Society, Inc. will be hosting a COCOFEST at the Northlake Holiday Inn, in Atlanta, on September 30th and October 1st 1995. Many vendors have already committed to be there and we are expecting many more to join us soon. As a vendor yourself, you know how publicity from an event like this can help you promote your products!

Among the attractions at the COCOFEST will be several GRAND PRIZES which will be given away at the final drawing on Sunday afternoon. This drawing will be from a drum containing only admission ticket stubs.

In addition to the above, we will also give away hourly prizes from a separate drum containing tickets which have been purchased inside of the COCOFEST area. These tickets will be kept entirely separate from the GRAND PRIZE tickets. The sale of hourly drawing tickets will be for the benefit of the Atlanta Computer Society, Inc., a non-profit educational corporation in the state of Georgia, and any monies collected from these ticket sales will be used to promote future COCOFESTS in Atlanta.

To that end, and hopefully to satisfy both of our needs, we are asking you to contribute a gift or gifts to be used as hourly prizes. If you would like to donate an additional MAJOR PRIZE for the GRAND PRIZE drawing, please mark the MAJOR PRIZE block on the accompanying donation form. All prize donors will receive official recognition from the Atlanta Computer Society, Inc., in the form of a letter of receipt that will bear the Seal of Incorporation of our club. We will announce all winners, donors and prizes won, on the P.A. system in the vendors area.

Please send all donations, together with your donation forms to:

Atlanta Computer Society, Inc.
Alan Dages, Prize Committee Chairman
4894 Candlewood Lane
Stone Mountain, Ga. 30088-1606

Donations should be delivered to that address before September 22 in order that all prizes and their donors can be properly recognized at the Sixth Annual Atlanta COCOFEST.

Thank you in advance for your support of the Atlanta COCOFEST and our efforts to promote this activity.

Alan R. Dages
Prize Committee Chairman
