Hi, my name is Tom Dykema, owner of T&D Subscription Software. T&D has been in business over eight years, producing some of the finest software at an affordable price. We now have over 940 original programs for the Color Computer.

Our subscribers receive ten new programs each month, and we have been including some great Tom Mix games on our latest issues! We are offering our back issues to you at low, low, prices.

We've also just converted 250 Macintosh quality pictures for the Color Computer. Each set comes with an excellent Graphics Editor.

Another product at T&D is Public Domain Software. We have acquired over 1,000 public domain programs including the latest from bulletin boards, etc. We sorted the best from the rest and now have available 630 games, utilities, graphics, adventures, education, home management, telecommunications, and music programs ...NO JUNK!

Check us out! You'll be glad you did!

Sincerely,
Tom Dykema
